IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 180 months.

This sentence consists of terms of 180 months as to each of Counts 3 and 4 of the Indictment; such terms to be served concurrently. Additionally, this sentence shall be served concurrently with any sentence imposed in the pending Claiborne County Tennessee, General Sessions Court numbers listed in paragraph 56 of the PSR, as those charges are sufficiently related to the instant offense. The Court further recommends that the BOP credit the defendant for all time previously spent in custody in that case.

☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

The court recommends that the defendant receive 500 hours of substance abuse treatment from the BOP Institution Residential Drug Abuse Treatment Program. Additionally, the court will recommend the defendant undergo a complete physical and mental health evaluation and receive appropriate treatment while serving his term of imprisonment. It is further recommended the defendant participate in educational classes and vocational training to learn a trade or marketable skills while incarcerated. Lastly, the court recommends the defendant be designated to FMC Lexington, Kentucky or FMC Butner, North Carolina.

☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:

☐ at ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m. on
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.

☐ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:

☐ before 2 p.m. on .
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 15 years.

This term consists of 15 years as to each of Counts 3 and 4 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentencing of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the mandatory, standard, and any special conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must participate in a program of sex offender mental health treatment at your own expense, as approved by the probation officer, until such time as you are discharged from treatment by the provider and as approved by the probation officer. You must comply with the policies and procedures of the treatment program. You must waive all rights to confidentiality regarding sex offender mental health treatment in order to allow release of information to the United States Probation Officer, and to authorize open communication between the probation officer and the treatment providers. SO-15-06(1)
2. You must have no direct or third-party contact, by any means available to you, with any victim(s) of a sex offense committed by the defendant. SO-15-06(2)
3. Other than incidental contact, which is defined as contact occurring merely by chance or without intention or calculation, you must not associate and/or be alone with children under 18 years of age, nor shall you be at any residence where children under the age of 18 are residing, without the prior written approval of the probation officer. If you have any contact with any such minor not otherwise addressed in this condition, you must immediately leave the situation and notify the probation officer. This provision shall not apply to contact with your own minor children unless the court expressly so finds. SO-15-06(3)
4. You must not visit, frequent, or linger about any place that is primarily associated with children under the age of 18 or at which children under the age of 18 normally congregate without the prior written approval of the probation officer. SO-15-06(4)
5. You must not associate with anyone, under any circumstance, that you know to be a sex offender, someone who engages in sexual activity with children under 18 years of age, or someone who condones and/or supports the sexual abuse/exploitation of children under 18 years of age (e.g., NAMBLA, BOYCHAT, Boylover Message Board), except while participating in sex offender mental health treatment or for employment purposes as approved by the probation officer. SO-15-06(5)
6. You must not possess any printed photographs, paintings, recorded material, or electronically produced material designed to produce arousal of sexual interest in children under 18 years of age. Nor shall you visit, frequent, or linger about any place where material designed to produce arousal of sexual interest in children is available to him. SO-15-06(6)
7. You must submit to a psychosexual assessment at your own expense, as directed by the probation officer. SO-15-06(8)
8. You must submit to polygraph testing at your own expense, as directed by the probation officer, in order to determine if you are in compliance with the conditions of supervision, or to facilitate sex offender treatment. You must be truthful during polygraph evaluations. SO-15-06(9)
9. All residences and employment shall be approved in advance by the probation officer. You must not participate in any volunteer activities requiring unsupervised contact with children under the age of 18, without the approval of the probation officer. You must not engage in an activity that involves being in a position of trust or authority over any child or children under the age of 18. SO-15-06(10)
10. You must submit your person, residence, vehicle, or any area over which you exercise control to a search conducted by a probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by you, at any time without prior notice or search warrant, in order to determine if you are in compliance with the conditions of supervision. You must warn anyone with whom you reside that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. SO-15-06(11)
11. You must not possess or use a computer or any other electronic device with access to the Internet or any other on-line computer service at any location (including employment), without the approval of the probation officer. SO-15-06(12)
12. You must not possess or use any data encryption, data elimination, or access-protection technique, device, or program designed to conceal, eliminate, or corrupt material that is illegal, designed to produce a sexual interest in children under 18 years of age, or prohibited by the probation officer. SO-15-06(13)
13. You must participate in a program of testing and/or treatment for drug and/or alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as you are released from the program by the probation officer.

14. You must participate in a program of mental health evaluation and treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as you are released from the program by the probation officer. You must waive all rights to confidentiality regarding mental health treatment in order to allow release of information to the supervising United States Probation Officer and to authorize open communication between the probation officer and the mental health treatment provider.
15. You must take all medication prescribed by the treatment program as directed. If deemed appropriate by the treatment provider or the probation officer, you must submit to quarterly blood tests, to determine whether you are taking the medication as prescribed.
16. You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, [computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media,] or office, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or designee. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of your supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
